All other interest earned plus premium tax savings shall be credited to the plan reserves. Reserve balances shall be retained and carried over from year to year.

C. The CHE shall be authorized ~~up to 5.0 full-time equivalent employees~~ to provide administration of the plan. In no case shall administrative costs exceed the administrative expenses that would have been charged under conventional insurance. amount of premium tax savings that would be incurred under a conventional group plan plus any interest earned on reserves. It is the intent that the plan be more cost efficient than conventional insurance.

D. The CHE is authorized to approve the inclusion of component units of the Montana University System (MUS) campuses, such as campus-affiliated foundations, into the MUS self-insured group insurance plan, subject to an agreement between the CHE and the component unit setting forth the terms and conditions of such participation
