

May 2019

Jim Elser, director of UM's Flathead Lake Biological Station, was elected to the National Academy of Sciences in recognition of his distinguished achievements in scientific research.

UM launches S.E.A. Change initiative to promote the safety, empowerment and acceleration of all women.

UM has hired Dr. Tim Nichols as Davidson Honors College dean, Dr. Thomas Gallagher as Missoula College dean and Renae Scott as chief information officer.

Fred Allendorf, UM Regents Professor of Biology Emeritus, recently was elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

UM has become the state's only public university on the Common Application, an online platform that more than 1 million students use to apply to college.

UM's Trademarks and Licensing Program wins a national award.

Teaching initiative invigorated by $1.5 million grant from Dennis and Phyllis Washington Foundation.

The UM American Indian Business Leaders earned the "Chapter of the Year" award.

UM's new Montana Media Lab plans high-level classes for digital storytelling.

UM students and researchers study impacts of June 2 solar eclipse on the weather in South America.

UM report: Visitors spent $3.7 billion in Montana last year.

Baucus Leaders program expands, sending 11 UM students to summer internships in Washington, D.C.

UM forestry college hosts kiosk dedication and mass timber workshop.

Flathead Lake Biological Station has launched a business drive to support watershed health.

Campus celebrated Native culture with the 51st Annual Kyiyo Celebration April 19-20.

UM researcher helps identify cross-boundary solutions to invasive weeds.

"Genius Award" winner Lisa Parks was chosen to speak at UM Commencement ceremonies.