

March 2021

University pharmacy students lead “Operation: Immunization” in the Missoula area.

UM was named a COVID-19 vaccine provider and distributor in December.

UM began vaccinating eligible students and employees. It also provided asymptomatic COVID-19 tests for students.

UM brings back time-honored tradition of ice skating on its scenic Oval near Main Hall.

Dr. Anthony Fauci headlines Mansfield Lecture at UM.

The University’s new undergraduate degree in public health is meeting the moment.

UM degree ranked fifth in the nation on a 2021 list for best masters in nonprofit management programs.

The University earned top honors for its master’s in counseling program, which trains school and clinical health professionals.

UM offered a new Certificate in Public History, and students in that program are helping preserve the history of COVID-19 in Montana.

UM was listed among the top military-friendly online universities by a national ranking organization.

UM enrollment numbers held steady for spring semester amidst pandemic.

The University offered new online courses for women entrepreneurs in Montana.

Study finds substantial economic benefits from two of Montana’s signature lakes.

A UM alumna released a new Montana PBS film about UM research on endangered white bark pine.

Two University students cover the Montana Legislature for the state’s news media.

A Griz student has planned a teaching experience at a remote Alaskan school.

Pre-eminent historian Dr. Crystal Sanders presents UM’s Martin Luther King Jr. Day lecture.

UM’s new registrar keeps focus on student success.