Policy 301.4.1 – Enrollment limitations; MSU-Bozeman

Approved: April 12, 1977; Revised: March 4, 2011

---

I. Board policy:

Montana State University-Bozeman is authorized to limit enrollment in nursing and/or upper division nursing classes.

II. Procedures:

A. Assignments to upper division (clinical) nursing classes shall be prioritized based upon a compilation of grade point averages in those courses designated by the college of nursing as having the greatest relevance and/or predictive value for success in nursing.

B. Students seeking assignment to upper division nursing courses shall be considered for a place through an application procedure.

C. Montana State University-Bozeman is authorized to collect a reasonable non-refundable nursing upper division application deposit. The deposit will be applied against the student's tuition and fees when the student registers in the first assigned semester of upper division nursing courses.
